

not have to be on any particular form but must indicate that it is an application for a written permit and include the following information:

(1) Name, address, and telephone number of the importer;

(2) Amount of semen indicated to be imported and species or subspecies of the honeybees from which the semen was collected;

(3) Country or locality of origin;

(4) Intended United States port of entry;

(5) Means of transportation; and

(6) Expected date of arrival.

(c) After receipt and review of the application by Plant Protection and Quarantine, a written permit indicating the applicable conditions in this subpart for importation shall be issued for the importation of the articles specified in the application if such articles appear to be eligible to be imported. Even though a written permit has been issued for the importation of an article, it may be moved into the United States from the port of entry only if all requirements of this subpart are met and only if an inspector at the port of entry does not determine that emergency measures are necessary with respect to such article to assure that diseases or parasites harmful to honeybees and that undesirable species or subspecies of honeybees are not introduced into the United States.

(d) Any permit which has been issued may be withdrawn by an inspector or the Deputy Administrator if he or she determines that the permit holder has not complied with any condition for the use of the permit. The reasons for the withdrawal shall be confirmed in writing as promptly as circumstances allow. Any person whose permit has been withdrawn may appeal the decision in writing to the Deputy Administrator within 20 days after receiving the written notification of the withdrawal. The appeal must state all of the facts and reasons upon which the person relies to show that the permit was wrongfully withdrawn. The Deputy Administrator shall grant or deny the appeal in writing, stating the reasons for the decision, as promptly as circumstances allow. If there is a conflict as to any material fact, a hearing shall be held to resolve the conflict.
